

Self-Directed Retirement Management Account

MEMBER
FDIC

For those who want to do more with their retirement investments, this account gives you the flexibility to manage your investments quickly and without penalty while earning money market interest rates on your liquid funds.

If you like to be in the driver's seat when it comes to investing, try our Self-Directed Retirement Management Account. You'll be able to control when, where and how you invest from a variety of excellent account options - both through BankFinancial and Financial Assurance. With our Online Banking, you can transfer between funds, check your balance at any time, make deposits from your savings checking, or money market account, and a variety of other options. It's the ultimate in control and flexibility!

Subject to change at any time without notice.