

Online Banking Agreement

This Online Banking Agreement contains special provisions relating to your access to and use of BankFinancial, NA Online Banking system to access your accounts and conduct other banking transactions ("Online Banking"). This Agreement (the "Agreement") supplements and amends BankFinancial, NA Account Agreement and Disclosure Statement (the "Account Agreement") and the Legal Terms of Use link to Legal Terms of Use of this site. Because you are an existing BankFinancial, NA customer and a user of this site, these agreements already apply to you and your accounts.

Please review the Account Agreement which contains important legal terms and conditions and legally-required disclosures about Electronic Funds Transfers, Funds Availability, and other important matters.

1. Agreement. When you access and use Online Banking for the first time, you are agreeing that all current and subsequent Online Banking access to and activity on your account(s) and the account(s) for which you have signatory authority (collectively, "Designated Accounts") shall be undertaken subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Your access to and use of Online Banking also makes each joint accountholder on the Designated Accounts subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

2. Online Banking Services. You may use Online Banking to: (a) transfer funds between Designated Accounts; (b) obtain current balance and other deposit account information; and (c) apply for certain types of residential loans. We reserve the right not to make transfers that would exceed the balance of available funds in the Designated Account from which the funds are being transferred. Funds cannot be transferred to a certificate of deposit account. Only interest (not principal) that has been posted to a certificate of deposit account can be transferred to another account. Please refer to the Account Agreement for important disclosures about limitations on the number of electronic transfers that you can make from a money market account or a savings account in any given month or statement cycle.

3. Internet Access. You must access the Internet in order to use Online Banking. In order to access the Internet, you will need a computer and related hardware, appropriate third party software and an Internet service provider. You are solely responsible for obtaining, installing, maintaining and operating, at your own expense, all computer hardware and software, an account with an Internet service provider, a telephone line, cable or other data transmission device, and all other goods and services that are necessary for accessing and using Online Banking (collectively, "Access Services"). We do not provide and are not responsible for any Access Services.

4. Access Number and PIN. A personal identification number ("PIN") and an Access Number are needed to access the Designated Accounts through Online Banking. Your access to the system will be denied if you do not enter the correct Access Number or PIN or other requested information. You understand and acknowledge that the security of any account accessible by use of the PIN depends upon maintaining the secrecy of the Access Number and PIN. You agree (a) not to reveal or give your Access Number or PIN to any person that you have not authorized to access the Designated Accounts, (b) that you will otherwise keep your Access Number and PIN confidential, and (c) to assume and accept all liability that legally can be imposed on you for each use of your Access Number and PIN, whether or not authorized by you. Under no circumstances should any of our employees request your Access Number or PIN through Online Banking, by e-mail, over the telephone or through other contact. Do not respond to such a request, even if the person claims to be our representative. Please refer to the Electronic Funds Transfer disclosures in the Account Agreement for information regarding your ability to limit your responsibility for unauthorized transfers, and our liability for failure to make transfers.

5. Online Banking Instructions. You authorize us to carry out instructions given to us through Online Banking with your Access Number and PIN as if those instructions were written orders bearing your signature. We will only be responsible for acting only on those instructions sent through Online Banking that we actually receive. Neither we nor any agent or independent contractor that we may involve in providing Online Banking services (a "Service Provider") shall be responsible if you give incorrect or untimely instructions. Online Banking instructions generally are acted upon immediately and cannot be revoked. We will not be obligated to honor, in whole or in part, any transaction or instruction that (a) is not in accordance with any term or condition applicable to Online Banking or any Designated Account; (b) we have reason to believe may not be authorized by you or any third person whose authorization we believe is necessary or involves funds subject to a hold, dispute, restriction or legal process we believe prevents their withdrawal; (c) is not in accordance with any other requirement of our applicable policies, procedures or practices; or (d) we have reasonable cause not to honor for our or your protection. You cannot use e-mail to initiate transactions or give instructions.

6. Fees and Charges. There is no separate fee or charge for Online Banking. You will remain subject to all fees and charges that apply to your account or specific transactions as set forth in the Account Agreement and the Rates and Fees page on this site. Any such fees or charges may be amended from time to time and will be deducted from the applicable Designated Account.

We may terminate this Agreement at any time without prior notice for any reason or for no reason. You agree that we may from time to time and in our sole discretion limit, suspend, discontinue or change the Online Banking services, in whole or in part, or amend the terms of this Agreement, including the imposition of fees and charges for using Online Banking. You will be notified of any such changes or amendments as required by applicable law. The termination of this Agreement shall not terminate your account relationship or other agreements with us unless they are separately terminated.

8. Limitations on Our Liability. Our liability to you is explained in the Account Agreement and Legal Terms of Use, and any notices and disclosures that we separately provide to you from time to time regarding your Designated Accounts and Online Banking. This section explains our liability to you only to the extent that our liability has not been separately disclosed to you by any of these agreements, notices, or disclosures.
